Inspired by the markets of Marrakesh

THE Arundell Arms is proud to announce that it will be hosting the Travelling Souk Christmas Fair this year on November 10 between 9.30am-3pm. The Travelling Souk was set up in 2003 by Georgiana Pike. Inspired by a trip to the magical souks and markets of Marrakesh, Georgiana realised there was an opportunity to recreate them in the heart of British homes and raise money for charity.

personal charity and proceeds of the sales are donated at the end of the day.

Since its inception The Travelling Souk has given more than £300,000 to more than 30 different charities.

Ambulances

The Arundell will be donating a percentage of all profits to both the Devon and Cornwall air ambulances, so if nothing else, go along to support these worthy charities that save lives throughout the Westcountry.

The Arundell Arms will be holding an all-day buffet so you can really make it a special day out for some retail therapy and a spot of lunch while gathering your Christmas gift ideas.

The Arundell Arms would like to thank all of its supporters for this event, in particular Strutt & Parker who have made a donation by offering to help sponsor the event.
